

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air a piece of anti-Kerry
propaganda two weeks before the election
clearly violates the
equal opportunity
provision of the
Communications Act.

The propaganda
piece in question is so one sided and
vicious, and so
obviously intended
to influence the outcome of the election that it
does not qualify for any exemption from
the Act. If Sinclair broadcasts
this piece, the FCC
has an obligation to
yank the license of every Sinclair
station.
